THE LATE MURDER IN MEDINA.—Depy Sheriff Louis Whitney returned from Medina on Saturday, where he has been for the purpose of investigating with regard to the horrible murder of the Coy family, which took place at the village of Medina on Thursday last. The excitement there with regard to the affair was most intense, all business being suspended, and the people all at the streets talking about the horrible affair. A great throng of people was constantly congregated in the vicinity of the tragic spot. The diabolical murder has cast a pall of horror over all the people of that section of the country. The most strenuous efforts will be made to detect the murderer, and if it is accomplished while the excitement is so intense they will never see a night of peace.

INQUEST HAS BEEN HELD and the bodies were buried on Friday, an immense concourse attending the funeral.

Mr. Whitney has furnished us with some additional particulars of the triple murder. Mr. Shubel Coy was a cattle-drover, residing in a thickly populated portion of Medina village. He was about forty years of age, greatly regarded by all who knew him, for his sterling qualities of head and heart. On Tuesday last he was in Cleveland and got quite a run of money from a bank with which he was connected. On Wednesday night at 10 o'clock he was seen in Medina, by a friend, to have $1,200. About half past three o'clock Thursday morning a young man who was going early to his work saw that Coy's house was on fire. He raised the alarm, and neighbors coming to the rescue proceeded to throw water upon the flames, which had not acquired much headway. Some one exclaimed, "Where is the family?" and then men rushed into the house to rescue them. A terrible scene met their view. Mr. Coy, his wife and child being murdered. The fire originated in their bed-room and had somewhat burned the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Coy. The bed was also on fire. Mr. Coy was found on the floor, and was discovered lying in a distorted position on the floor at the foot of the bed, having doublets thrust through his body with his murderer. The child, who was a boy seven years of age, was found in the same bed, his throat being cut. The bodies were at once removed. Mr. Coy had nice teeth in his throat and breast, and in their capable of producing death. Mrs. Coy's throat was cut, and she had twenty-four cuts on her head and body as well as a large, slashing knife. Pieces of the knife were found in the wounds in her skull. She evidently resisted her fate fearfully. The boy had but one cut.

Mr. Coy always slept with his money under his head. The robber would not have harmed him, probably, had he not awakened, when the murderous knife, held in preparation, descended into his throat. He seemed to have died almost without a struggle. There were evidently two engaged in the deed, as the marks of two pairs of bloody hands have been discovered on a fence in the rear of the house, where the murderers got over a woman residing near Coy's house and two men getting over the fence at about the time of the occurrence. No outcry whatever was heard from the house. The package in which was the money was found near the house; it was not bloody.

Until the excitement with regard to the affair subsides somewhat, there can be no further investigation. A reward of $1,000 has been offered for the detection of the murderers. There is no clue to them yet.

THE FOURTH IN THE CITY.—Independent day passed off very quietly in the city. In fact, it was the quietest "Fourth" that we have seen in several years.

At half past 10 o'clock the Fire Department, under direction of Chief Engineer Cram, made a parade through the principal streets, headed by a band of music. The steamers, now here and there, were decorated with bunting, flags, &c., and drawn as they were by the splendid horses belonging to the Department, presented a fine appearance.

The steamer Morning Star was taken on excursion in the forenoon and afternoon, taking out large crowds.

The circus and other places of amusement were thronged. Harry Leslie, a performer from the roof of the hall to the roof of the opposite building on a rope twice during the day, to the wonder and diversion of a large number of spectators who thronged the street. The performances of the above mentioned troupe at Brainerd's Hall, by the way, are well worthy of a visit.

Although there was no very special attraction in town there were a great many people in from the country, who stared at the fountain and Commodore Perry, and lavishly expended their scrip for lemonade, ices and shows. There was no very considerable display of fireworks, drunkenness or similar illuminations in the evening.

The soldiers at Camp Cleveland enjoyed a fine dinner, provided by the ladies of the city. They eat their fill of good things and enjoyed the occasion much. There was music and there were speakers, of which we can but make brief mention.

DR. BETTLEY gives particular attention to the treatment of all kinds of surgical and mechanical dentistry done, in the best manner and at a low price.

LADIES. If you want a nice, cool dress go to Kendall's, or any other dry goods store. But if you want a delicious glass of Cream Soda Water call at Hall's, 111 Public Square.

DIABOLICAL ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP SHERIFF LEWIS.—Persons in the vicinity of the County Court House, on Saturday afternoon, were startled by a terrific explosion proceeding from the sheriff's office. It was soon ascertained that an attempt had been made to blow up the sheriff with something resembling an infernal machine. While he was seated upon a stool endeavoring to cool himself with a dish of ice cream from McMillan's machine designed to blow him up exploded directly beneath the stool. Persons who were in the room assert that the concussion raised our worthy sheriff about a foot from the ground, which shows the violence of the explosion as he weighs in the neighborhood of three hundred pounds, dry measure. When he came down on the stool again after being blown up, every log of that stool shrieked and whistled. Fortunately he escaped serious injury. No arrests have yet been made towards certain depots very sharply to the depots of a popular restaurant near the Court House. The perpetrators consequently chased the Fourth of July in which to blow the sheriff up so that it detected they might plead that they were simply "celebrating."
